OPEN FOR BUSINESS!

Mayor's Office of Economic Development

SMALL BUSINESS STAKEHOLDER DISASTER AWARENESS SERIES

PRESENTED BY THE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT AND MAYOR'S OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

In collaboration with the Small Business Administration, Los Angeles Region & Mayor's Office of Homeland Security and Public Safety

WHAT: The Emergency Management Department and Mayor's Office of Economic Development are providing community stakeholders and small businesses an exciting opportunity to get information on the city's disaster preparedness and the role they play in helping the city "Stay open for Business." Along with an update from the Mayor's Small Business Team, there will be a tour of the "Safest Building in the City," the state-of-the-art Emergency Operations Center (EOC). The building is the city's point of primary coordination for disaster management.

WHERE: Emergency Operations Center – Emergency Management Department
500 E. Temple St, Los Angeles, CA 90012
